Superfest is only the beginning of the Arena's coming attractions

JUST ANNOUNCED:

■ Well, maybe not just announced, but it's just around the corner — this Sunday (the 30th) at the Baltimore Arena, it's the Budweiser Superfest featuring R. Kelly, Heavy D., Warren G. and Da Brat. Also at the Arena, Patti LaBelle and Sinbad perform on Nov. 6 and the "Young Messiah Tour" featuring Sandi Patty, Carman and Twila Paris is on Nov. 26. Tickets will go on sale Nov. 5 for Vince Gill, along with Trisha Yearwood and Larry Stewart performing at the Arena on Dec. 3. Call (410) 481-SEAT for tickets for all of these shows.

■ At Hammerjacks, Wide-spread Panic performs on Nov. 26; the only area appearance of the Cramps is on Nov. 28; and Biohazard performs on Dec. 17. Call (410) 659-ROCK.

■ Dada performs at Graffiti's on Nov. 24. Call (410) 252-3200.

■ Tickets go on sale today for Danzig, Type O-Negative and Godflesh appearing at Michael's Eighth Avenue in Glen Burnie on Nov. 29. Call (410) 768-7901 or (410) 481-SEAT.

■ At the Patriot Center, on the campus of George Mason University in Fairfax, Va., Candlebox and the Flaming Lips

218-6500.

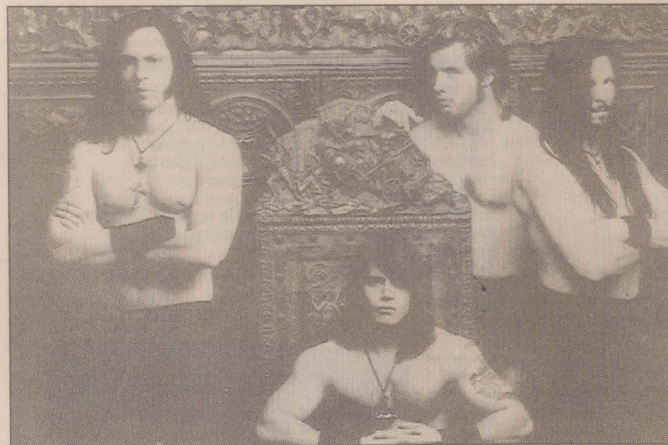

■ The Cape May Jazz Festival in Cape May, N.J., will be Nov. 11-Nov. 13 at the Congress Hall and the Rusty Nail on Beach Drive. Performing will be Jeanie Bryson and Her Quartet, the John Swana Quintet, the Barbara Walker Story and the Brian Trainor Trio. Call (609) 884-7277 for more information.

■ The Thelonious Monk International Jazz Vocals Competition takes place Nov. 21 at the Kennedy Center. Eleven singers from four countries will compete. Hosts of this year's event will be Billy Dee Williams and Herbie Hancock. Call (800) 444-1324.
