

LAS VEGAS REVIEW-JOURNAL

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1992

Night Beat

THE WEEK AHEAD:

The Halloween spirit carries into next week when those black T-shirt wearin', devil-music playin' and all-around fun guys Danzig play the Huntridge on Wednesday. The $18.50 advance tickets were approaching sell-out status last week. The not-as-serious White Zombie and Kyuss open.

The band's 1990 show at Artemus Ham Concert Hall pretty much squelched all future "thrash" or slam-dancing events at the venue after the promoter had to pay $2,500 for damage to the nice seats there. Word has it that Phoenix-based Evening Star was offered exclusive rights to Wednesday's show to make up for the financial hit.

Danzig brings alternative-metal gloom and doom to the Huntridge.